SUPPLEMENT.

Published under the direction of a Committee appointed by The Benchers in Convocation.

YORK, U. C.
HILARY TERM, 1899.
Many of the Rules of this Society, and of the Orders of Convocation having become unnecessary, and others of them being deemed inconvenient, a Committee of Bencherers was appointed in Trinity Term, 1830, to take the subject into consideration, with instructions to prepare a revised collection of the Bye-laws of the Society, including the alterations which they might think it expedient to recommend. The Committee after giving the subject much consideration, made a final Report in Trinity Term, 1831. This Report was adopted by The Bencherers in Convocation; and all the Rules of the Society, with the exception of those of Trinity Term, 37 Geo. 3, Chapters 2 & 3, Michaelmas Term, 40 Geo. 3, Chapters 1 & 2, Trinity Term, 59 Geo. 3, Chapter 1, and Hilary Term, 6 Geo. 4, Chapter 1, were repealed, and most of them re-enacted, with some alterations and additions. The Orders of Convocation were also subsequently re-adopted with such alterations and additions as were thought necessary. Thus, it happens that many of the Rules and Orders, although of long standing in the Society, bear at present a modern date. The present publication will be found to contain all the Rules and Standing orders of Convocation, now in force. Of the Resolutions and Particular or Executive orders of Convocation, the Committee have published those only which appeared to them to be of general importance. The Rolls, Summaries, and other documents which, in the exercise of the discretion vested in them by the Convocation, the Committee have deemed it proper to publish as Addenda, will, they hope, be found interesting, to the Members of the Society generally. The Appendix of Forms, they feel cannot but be acceptable; and it is hoped will prevent the inconvenience and delay which have sometimes occurred from the papers of Candidates for Admission and Call, being incomplete.

As the Committee have reason to believe that a very general expectation was entertained among the Members of Osgoode Hall, that this Edition of the Rules of the Society would have appeared at a much earlier period, they take this opportunity of explaining to the Profession at large, the reason of the delay. Although the Committee were appointed so early as Trinity Term, 1831, as the judges did not signify their approbation of the revised collection of Rules, until Michaelmas following, nothing could of course be done by the Committee in the interim. During Michaelmas Term, two Drafts connected with the education of the Students; one of which has since passed into a Rule, were reported by a Select Committee, read a first and second time and ordered to be committed on the first Convocation day of the following Term. On the very day in Hilary Term on which the former of these Drafts passed the Convocation, the latter was thrown out and a Committee appointed to consider whether any improvements could be adopted in the proceedings of Convocation, with reference to Admissions and Calls. Had the publication of the Rules taken place while those matters were still pending, the edition would by this time have proved of comparatively but little use, particularly to those members of the Society who have yet to take their Barrister's Degree, and would certainly have been of still less value to those gentlemen who are only preparing to enter the Society. Under these circumstances, the Committee felt fully justified in delaying to proceed with the publication until the proceedings of the Convocation upon those important subjects were brought to a close. The Committee of Hilary Term above mentioned, owing to the unavoidable occupation of one of its members in discharging the important duties of a sister profession, were unable to make a report upon the subject referred to them until this Term, and no time has since been lost in getting the work through the press. This, the Committee trust, will, by their Brethren of the profession, be admitted as a satisfactory explanation of a delay; the necessity for which, none have more sincerely regretted than the Members of the Committee themselves.

Osgoode Hall,
Michaelmas Term, 1832.

CONVOCATION.

TRINITY TERM, 1st and 2d of WM. IV.

1. Resolved, that the Law Society of Upper Canada was established by act of Parliament of this Province of the 37th of Geo. the 3rd Chap. 13.

2. Resolved, That under that act all persons duly entered of the Society and admitted on its books, whether as Students or Barristers at Law, became by such entry and admission to all intents and purposes whatsoever, Members of the Society.

3. Resolved, That by that act, the Society were empowered with the approbation of the Judges of the Province, as visitors of the said Society, to make such rules and regulations as might be deemed necessary or proper for the government of the Society.

4. Resolved, That by a Rule of the Society of Michaelmas Term, 40th Geo. the 3d, Chap. 2. passed by the Society on the 9th day of November, 1799, at a general meeting summoned by letter to all the Members, for the express purpose of altering and adding to the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and approved of by the Judges according to the statute, on the 16th day of January, 1800, it was Provided that the Benchers of the Society for the time being should be considered Governors of the said Society, and have full power to make such Rules and Regulations from time to time as should or might be necessary for the welfare of the Society, subject to the inspection of the Judges.

5. Resolved, That by that Rule the whole power of making Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Society was duly transferred to, and vested in the Convocation of Benchers.
6. Resolved, That by an act of the Parliament of this Province of 2nd Geo. 4th, Chap. 5. the Rule above mentioned and the proceedings of the Benchers under it were recognized and followed up by a legislative enactment incorporating that portion of the Society in which the power of legislating for the whole body had been so vested.

7. Resolved, That while this last mentioned Act of Parliament confers corporate powers upon the Treasurer and Benchers only under the Corporate name of The Law Society of Upper Canada, it does not interfere with the right of membership of persons duly entered of the Society and admitted on its books as Students or Barristers at Law, but leaves them Members of The Law Society of Upper Canada, though not Members of the Corporation of The Law Society of Upper Canada.

8. Resolved, That the powers conferred by this last mentioned Act upon the Treasurer and Benchers, as well as all others with which they have been entrusted, are held by them in trust, and for the benefit of the Society at large, and not for the benefit of the corporation of the Society only.

9. Resolved, That in fulfilling the various and important duties imposed upon it by the constitution of the Society, the Convocation of The Benchers is frequently called upon to pass Rules for the Government of the Society at large; to adopt Resolutions explanatory of the sense entertained by the Benchers of existing regulations and upon different other matters connected with the profession; to make general Orders for the regulation of its own proceedings as a body; and finally to direct by Particular Orders the executive business of the Institution.

10. Resolved, That by the act of Parliament of the 37th Geo. 3rd. Chap. 13, it is provided that the Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Society shall be made with the approbation of the Judges of the Province, as Visitors of the Society.

11. Resolved, that the Judges have declined either to assent to, or dissent from resolutions of the Convocation, which did not contain provisions for the general government of the Society, expressly on the ground that their authority as Visitors under the statute, did not extend to control any such proceedings of the Convocation.

12. Resolved, that under the act of Parliament of the 37 George 3, chap. 13. The approbation of the Judges is necessary only to "The Rules of the Society" that is to such regulations as provide for the general government of the Society at large, or as being general in their operation, contain provisions by which persons not members of the Convocation may be directly affected and such are in no respect binding on the Society, or on any member of it until the Judges of the Province have duly approved thereof according to Law.

13. Resolved, that to "The Resolutions of the Convocation" that is, to such resolutions as are merely explanatory of the sense entertained by The Benchers of existing Rules or regulations, or upon other matters connected with the profession, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large and upon every member thereof without such approbation.
RESOLUTIONS OF CONVOCATION.

14. Resolved, that to "The Standing Orders of the Convocation" that is, to such regulations of the Convocation as provide merely for the regulation of its own proceedings as a body the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large, and upon every member thereof without such approbation.

15. Resolved that to "The Particular Orders of the Convocation" that is, to such orders as are given by the Convocation in directing the executive business of the Institution, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large and upon every member thereof without such approbation.

NO. 11.
REPORT ON BY-LAWS.

COMMITTEE:

To The Benchers of The Law Society of Upper Canada in Convocation.

The Committee to whom was referred the Revision and Digesting the Rules and By-Laws of the Society beg leave to report as follows.

From the first institution of this Society in July, 1797 to January 1800, the management of its affairs and the making of all its rules and regulations appears to have been vested in and controlled by all the members of the Profession generally, and it was not until the 9th Nov. 1799, that any change in this respect was attempted. At that time a full meeting of the Profession adopted a rule, approved of by the Judges, on the 16th January following, by which they elected 15 Benchers, including those previously appointed, with the six senior members of the Profession, and on the part of the Society, the government of its affairs was entrusted to these Benchers. Since that time, down to the passing the Act of Incorporation in 1822, many Benchers were appointed, not being of the six senior members of the Society, nor yet in every instance next in seniority to the Senior Bancher, at the time of such appointment. It does not appear, however, that these subsequent appointments were (as the first had been) submitted to the Judges for their approbation. All the business of the Society has been since conducted by the Benchers alone without any further reference to or interference from the Profession at large.

Many rules adopted by them still continue in force, while others have been altered, and some wholly repealed. No Rule or By-Law for the nomination and appointment of Benchers can be found on record, although both before as well as since the act of incorporation, a uniform practice appears to have prevailed of proposing a member of the Profession in Convocation to be appointed a Bancher, which proposal having been adopted, the Treasurer was directed to communicate the resolution to the party, whose appointment was then considered complete. The Statute, 2 Geo. 4, c. 5, (1322,) appears to your Committee to recognise and establish the appointment of those Benchers who were chosen before its passing. It enacts, "that the Treasurer and Benchers of The Law Society for the time being, and their successors, be nominated and appointed according to the Rules and By-Laws of said Society, shall be a body corporate," &c. &c.
Since the passing of this Act, no Rules or By-Laws governing the appointment of Benchers can be found, but the practice already mentioned appears to have continued down to the present time.

Under these circumstances your Committee beg to suggest the propriety of submitting to the Judges of the Province for their approval, a rule settling a mode for the future appointment of Benchers, a draft of this Rule will be found in the Appendix to this report.

In revising the existing By-Laws and preparing such as your Committee have judged it desirable to propose, the attention of your Committee was particularly drawn to those regulating the admission of students on the Books, and calling them to the Bar for the purpose of preventing the admission of improper and unqualified persons into the profession. The present Rules of the Society are threefold. 1st, requiring every Student to give a Term's notice of his intention to apply for admission on the Books. 2d, requiring a certificate of his fitness by principles, education and habits, from two Barristers or one Bencher. 3d, requiring such applicant to pass two examinations, one previous to his being admitted on the Books, the other preceding his call to the Bar. Your Committee have taken the liberty of suggesting a trifling alteration in this system, namely, to do away with the necessity of any certificate whatever. Independently of the consideration that such certificates (as your Committee are induced to believe) are very frequently given as a mere matter of course, your Committee submit to the Society that however respectable the signatures to any certificate, and however strong its terms, the admission or rejection of the party presenting it would nevertheless depend, at least as to his education, wholly upon the view which those to whom his examination was entrusted, took of his qualifications, and if that view were unfavorable, it would add to the unpleasantness of being obliged to reject the candidate, an apparent disregard of the Certificate of those by whom he was recommended.

The Term's notice required, gives the Benchers ample opportunity of making the necessary inquiries, and by requiring that notice to contain particulars of the family, residence and connexions of the candidate, every facility for acquiring the necessary information would be afforded when a stranger offers himself.

Your Committee would further recommend, that a term's notice should also be required from students applying to be called to the Bar, as their habits, conduct and character during their five years of study, are more important subjects of enquiry, and will afford a much better opportunity to the Society of judging of the propriety of calling them to the Bar. These means, coupled with a strict adherence to the rules of the Society, appointing particular days for the examination and admission of students, on which days it is hoped a full attendance of the Benchers might be secured, would, in the opinion of your committee, excite a feeling in the minds of students, of the necessity of study, as well as correct conduct, and tend materially to raise the general character of the profession. The only remaining alteration on this head, your Committee have to suggest, is, changing the examination into an investigation of the general qualifications and fitness of the applicant, instead of confining it as hitherto, to classical and literary attainments.

Your Committee would further remark, that while the Benchers in some cases have appeared to conceive it necessary to submit their regulations to the Judges, they have in other cases merely adopted a resolution in the nature of a standing order, without submitting it to the Judges, or recording it in the Rule Book. With reference to this subject, ject, your Committee are of opinion, that it cannot, either under the provisions of the 37. Geo. 3rd, or under those of rule No. 4, be, by any means, necessary to submit every resolution for the approval of the Judges. The Statute speaks of "Rules and Regulations for the go-government of the Society," and the rule referred to of "rules and regulations," evidently referring to the previous words of the Statute) as may be necessary for the welfare of the Society. Now it is obvious that there must be a number of specific resolutions, which, in transacting the business of the Society, it may be necessary for the Benchers to come to, which cannot be considered as falling under this description of "rules and regulations," such, for instance as those appropriating money, electing Benchers, and a variety of other transactions of a similar character—at the same time, your Committee are of opinion, that the Benchers do not appear to have acted upon any fixed principle in submitting their resolutions to the Judges; as they find on the one hand the election of a number of Benchers submitted and passed as a rule; and on the other, the provision for examining students previous to their call, merely recorded as a standing order. Your committee would strongly recommend laying down some fixed principle on this subject. In this, they think, there will be little difficulty, particularly since the passing of the 3d Geo. 4, by which a distinction is drawn between "The Society" and the "Treasurer and Benchers" who alone constitute the convocations of the Society. By that act, the "Treasurer and Benchers" (not the Society, itself) are incorporated by the name, indeed, of "The Law Society of Upper Canada," but all their corporate privileges granted by that act, are to be exercised to and for the use of the said Society; by which word "Society," as there used, your Committee understand not the corporation just created, but the whole body of the Society consisting of all Barristers and Students at Law, standing as such on the books of the Institution.

Your Committee would therefore recommend the adoption of this principle, which the convocation might declare by a resolution on their Journals, viz: That all provisions for the general government of the profession at large, and all such by which any persons not belonging to the Convocation, may be directly affected, require the assent of the Judges, before they become rules, regulations, or By-laws, or in any respect binding on the Society, or any members of it; but that all such regulations or orders of the convocation as may regulate merely, its own proceedings, or are specific directions in the transacting the business, and managing the affairs of the Society, do not require the assent of the Judges to give them force and authority.
Your Committee would also recommend the adoption of a formal caption to the rules, that when a new rule is passed, it may on the face of it appear to have been enacted by competent authority.

Your Committee have lastly to remark to the Society, that several of their resolutions have been submitted to the Judges, on which no opinon has, as yet, been expressed by them.

Your Committee subjoin an appendix, showing the Rules and By-Laws of the Society, as revised by them, showing further the new Rules proposed, old Rules abrogated, Resolutions adopted by the Society, and not confirmed by the Judges, and the Caption proposed.

(Signed) ROBERT BALDWIN, Chairman.

COMMITTEE.

George Ridout, Esq. Chairman.

To The Benchers of The Law Society of Upper Canada in Convocation.

The select Committee to whom it was referred to enquire whether any improvements could be made in the mode of conducting examinations under the Rule of Trinity Term, 1 and 2 of Wm. 4 chap. 12, beg leave most respectfully to report

That they have prepared a series of standing orders which will be found appended to this Report and which they most respectfully recommend to the adoption of the Convocation.

In making this recommendation your Committee have felt it to be incumbent upon them to make a few remarks explanatory of the views which resulted in the framing these orders. The Committee however, would not by any means be understood as attempting in this report to enter into a full exposition of the questions involved in them; these may be better collected by a careful examination of the orders themselves.

The evils of the present system which leaves the young man of the first talents and most persevering industry undistinguished from the least talented and industrious of his fellows will be readily seen and acknowledged.

It appeared to your Committee that in providing a system to remedy this evil it was desirable to make the range of study the distinguishing characteristic as being a criterion more likely to be universally and accurately understood, and satisfactorily acted upon than any other.

They have accordingly made that the basis of their proposed system of classification. For the particulars of which your Committee beg leave to refer to the drafts of Orders annexed. By the adoption of the system thus submitted your Committee feel that the Convocation will in effect be declaring to the public that the range of study required to enable a Candidate for admission to pass an Examination of the highest order embraces all the artificial acquirements necessary for the commencement of the study of the Profession with the best possible prospect of success. Upon the arrangement therefore of this Class of Examinations your Committee have bestowed the utmost attention and they have arranged it upon such a standard as that in general none but young men of upwards of twenty years of age of good natural abilities and laborious industry and who have enjoyed and availed themselves of a Collegiate education can prepare themselves to pass an examination which would be intitled to be placed in it. Your Committee being of opinion that no young man within whose reach such advantages are placed ought to commence the study of the Law at an earlier age or until he has fully availed himself of such means of intellectual improvement. Your Committee are also of opinion that those in the present state of the Province but few may perhaps be able to prepare themselves to pass such an Examination, yet the ambition to attain it will materially improve the education of that part of our youth in general who are intended for the Profession.

On the other hand the Convocation by the adoption of this system will in the opinion of your Committee be held to have declared in like manner that the amount of knowledge required to be attained in order to enable a Candidate to have his Examination placed in the lowest class, or in other words accepted, is the smallest quantum of education which can under any circumstances whatsoever justify the reception of young men as Candidates for the Profession.

With this view your Committee in arranging this Class, propose to require only such acquirements as they conceive absolutely indispensable.

With respect to the intermediate order your Committee are of opinion that any young man with abilities sufficient to warrant him in entering upon the Profession, who has enjoyed and availed himself of the ordinary opportunities of improvement, can, with industry, (and no one without industry, can become a Lawyer) by the time he is eighteen years of age fully qualified himself to pass an Examination intitled to be placed in this Order. And they are of opinion that no young man ought to be encouraged by the Convocation or permitted by his friends if they regard his future prospects to commence the study of the Profession at an earlier age.

Your Committee have not proposed a classification of the Examinations for a call to the degree of Barrister, in deference to the practice which obtains in most of the Universities which they are informed is not to classify examinations for degrees.

Upon the whole your Committee are opinion that under this system while no young man can be rejected whose amount of knowledge gives the least possible expectation of his doing any thing in the Profession those only are encouraged to enter upon it whose intellectual acquirements and industrious habits hold out the gratifying prospect of their professional career proving alike honorable to themselves creditable to their friends and useful to the public.

All which is most respectfully submitted.

G. Ridout

NO. 16.

SUMMARY OF THE PROVISIONS

Contained in the Provincial Statutes, and Rules of the Society, Respecting the admission of Members into the Society, and their subsequent call to the Bar; with Directory Notes.

Note.—Blank Notices, Petitions, &c. can be had by application to the Stewart.

It is required by the Statutes, and Rules of the Society—

I.—That before a Gentleman is presented to the Convocation, for the purpose of being admitted a Member of the Society, and entered as a Student of the Laws, there be one term's notice of such Presentation given in open Convocation.

[Note.—Let this Notice, (for the form of which see Appendix I.) be properly filled up with the names in full, and intrusted to the Treasurer, or some Bencher, who will undertake to attend to it; and although it may be given on any day in Term, yet as it must be given in open Convocation, it is recommended to place it in the hands of a Bencher likely to attend the Convocation early in the Term, as it not unfrequently happens, from a press of business in Court, that a Quorum cannot be obtained in the latter part of the Term; in which case the Notice could not be given, and the Candidate might be disappointed and a Term lost. It must be remembered also, that this notice can only be given in one term for the next, and that if anything should prevent the Candidate from being presented or admitted during such term, a New Notice must be given precisely as at first.]
II.—That such Presentation be in writing, signed by a Member of the Society, of the degree of Barrister at Law.

[Note.—This Presentation (see Appendix 2.) was adopted in lieu of the Certificate formerly required, and is considered not merely as an introduction to the Convocation, for the purpose of identifying the person, but as a pledge from the Member signing it that the Candidate for admission is by character and habits a proper person to be admitted into the Society. It ought, therefore, always to be procured from some gentleman to whom the Candidate has been previously known, as it might probably otherwise not be received. This petition should be signed in the presence of and attested by some person not a member of the Society. Attach it, and your Presentation together, carry them to the Treasurer and deposit with him the amount of your admission fee ($10.) If you wish to be examined on the first Examination Day of the term (the first Monday) your papers must be left and deposit made with the Treasurer on or before the preceding Friday, if the Second Examination Day (the first Saturday) they must be left with him on the preceding Thursday. Indorse, your petition, "for optimus," "for senior," or "for junior," according to the Class for which you intend to contend. On the Examination Day attend at Osgoode Hall and you will be called in before the Convocation in your turn and examined. After your Examination has been "received," "passed," and "classed," of which you will be informed, there will be no necessity for your remaining longer in attendance that day. If your Examination has been classed in a lower order than you expected and you would prefer making another attempt to pass an Examination of a higher class rather than be admitted upon the Examination as classed, you may procure this indulgence upon petition. You will however of course lose a term by it as the Convocation cannot enter upon a second Examination of the same Candidate during the same Term. Prepare a petition for leave to withdraw your petition for admission, (See Appendix 6) and give it to the same or some other Bencher who will undertake to present it. This must be done previous to the Admission Day, for if such petition be not presented to the Convocation before the question for your admission has been put it will be too late. If the petition is presented in time it is a matter of course to grant the prayer of it, and in this case or where your Examination is not "passed" by the Convocation, you will upon calling on the Treasurer on some subsequent day receive the sum deposited for your fee. You must then be careful to have a new presentation given for the following term, if you intend to come up for Examination again in such subsequent term. If you prefer being admitted upon the Examination as "classed," attend the Convocation on The Admission Day, and upon an order being made for your admission you will be called in in your turn, and formally admitted a member of the Society and entered as a student of the Laws. On the following day attend at Osgoode Hall and enter your exercise in the Exercise Book and if you desire to keep the Term of your admission as one of your four terms, you must also on the day after your admission make your personal request to the Treasurer (See Appendix 7 and note to Article IV.) Call on the Secretary and he will make out and deliver to you your Certificate of Admission.

III.—That the Candidate for Admission be of the full age of sixteen years, and be able to undergo a full and strict examination both as to his classical attainments and general information, in open Convocation.

[Note—If the Candidate enters for the Optimus Class he is subject to an Examination in the English, Latin & Greek Languages, in Geometry, Algebra; Moral Philosophy, Metaphysics, Rhetoric and the Belles Lettres, Geography, Astronomy and History; if he enters for the Senior Class he is subject to an examination in the English and Latin languages, Geometry, IV. — That he be standing five years on the Books of the Society as a Student of the Laws, commencing with the day of his admission.

[Note. — A Student's time is reckoned by years and not by terms. And he must be bona fide engaged for that period in the actual pursuit of the profession.]

V. — That during such five years' standing, he keep four terms at the seat of the Court of King's Bench, and of the Society, reporting himself personally, and in writing, to the Treasurer, on the first and last days of such terms.

[Note. — For the Form of a Report on the first day of Term, see App. 8. The Treasurer cannot receive a report made on any other day, than those above mentioned or after, but is held rigidly to the terms named in the Rule. A Student, however, is permitted by the Rule of Trinity I. & 2. Wm. 4, ch. 1, to keep the term in which he is admitted into the Society as one of the four, although not admitted on the first day of the term. For this purpose, however, he must make a similar report of himself on the day after his admission. (See Appendix 7.) This Report is, by the rule of Wm. 4, equivalent to a report on the first day of the term. The Student, however, must be careful to report himself also on the last day of such term, otherwise he will lose the term. It is to be remembered also, that those Students, who reside at the seat of the Court and Society, are not exempted from the necessity of reporting themselves. (For the Form of a report on the last day of term see Appendix 9.)

VI. — That before he is presented to the Convocation to be called to the Bar, one term's notice of such Presentation be given in open Convocation; of which notice he must give three days' notice in writing. (See note on the first article of this Summary. Every thing there said of that Notice is equally applicable to this.) (For the Form see Appendix 10.)

VII. — That such Presentation be in writing, signed by a member of the Society, of the degree of Barrister at Law.

[Note. — This Presentation may be signed by any member of the Society of the degree of Barrister at Law. As it is looked upon, however, in a similar light to the former, (see note to article II.) it ought to be procured from the Gentleman with whom the Candidate studied. Should this be impossible, or should the Candidate have studied with several Gentlemen the Form (see Appendix 11) is easily adapted to the circumstances of the case. Prepare your petition for your degree, (see Appendix 12.) attend to the directions in the note to Article II., as to the execution of the Petition, attach it and your Presentation together, carry them with your Bond, (for the Form of which see Appendix 13, and the note to Article IX.) to the Treasurer, learn from him whether he is satisfied as to the sufficiency of your assurance, and if he is, deposit with him the amount of the fee on call £20. If you wish to be examined on the first Examination day of the Term (the first Monday) your papers must be left and the deposit made with the Treasurer on or before the preceding Friday. If on the second Examination Day (the first Saturday) they must be left with him on the preceding Thursday. On the Examination Day attend at Osgoode Hall, and you will be called in before the Convocation in your turn and examined. After your Examination has been received and passed, and an order made for your call to the Bar of which you will be informed, you must, at the summons of Convocation, and when again called before them, present yourself in your gown and bands when you will be formally called to the degree of Barrister at Law. Attend in the King's Bench at the opening of the Court, on the following morning, and the Treasurer will introduce you to the Judges when the oaths will be administered to you. Call on the Secretary and he will make out and deliver to you your Diploma of Barrister at Law.

VIII.—That he be of the full age of twenty-one years, and be able to undergo a second full and strict examination as to his classical attainments, general information, and professional knowledge in open Convocation.

[Note—This besides an Examination similar to that passed on presentation for admission (see Article III and note thereto) includes an examination in the principles of the Law of England, and the Science of Special Pleadings, the Law of Evidence, the law relative to trials at nisi prius and the practice of the Courts.]

IX.—That, previous to his call to the Bar, he enter into a Bond to the Society in the penalty of one hundred pounds, with two Sureties, approved by the Treasurer, conditioned for the payment of fees and dues, &c. &c.

[Note.—For the form of this Bond, see Appendix 13. This bond should be executed in the presence of and attested by some person, not a member of the Society. In order to enable the Treasurer to decide upon the sufficiency of the Sureties, as he is required to do, first a Certificate be procured on the back of the Bond, signed by two or more respectable persons, likely to be known to the Treasurer, one of them, if possible, a member of the Society. (See Appendix 14.) This may prevent any delay or disappointment from the Treasurer being acquainted with the Sureties, and is, in all cases, advisable.]

X.—That on his admission into the Society, and entry on the Books as a Student of the Laws, he pay into the Treasury £10. On his call to the Bar, £20, and on the last day of every Term after his call to the Bar, £11. 6d.

[Note.—The payment of this term fee (the collection of which was for many years omitted) is in future to be strictly enforced, and the proceeds to be applied to the augmentation of the Library.]

SUMMARY OF THE PRACTICE OF

THE TRINITY CLASS OF STUDENTS

IN RELATION TO EXERCISES.

EXAMINATION.

The Annual Examination takes place on the first Thursday after the Michaelmas Session of the Class. On this occasion the whole Class are examined as to their professional attainments, by the President and any other Barristers of the Society, who may choose to attend. The Books in which, for the most part, they are examined, are Blackstone's Commentaries, Selwyn's Law of Nisi Prius, and Phillips' Law of Evidence.

MEETINGS FOR EXERCISE.

The Class meets for Exercise every Thursday.

All these meetings of the Class are held at 3 o'clock, P.M. in the Common Hall, Osgoode Hall. If the President is not present to take the chair, within fifteen minutes after the time of meeting, the chair is taken by some other Barrister, or by the Treasurer, or Senior Student of the Class present, they giving place to the President should he come in during the sitting of the Class. Before the order of the day is proceeded with, the Secretary reads the minutes of the preceding meeting, in order that any mistakes therein may be rectified. If, these minutes the names of all the members present at the meeting are recorded and it is stated which of them performed exercises, and how many exercises. So that the Register a duplicate of which is annually deposited with the Treasurer of the Society, is a faithful record of the industry of the members of the Class, to which reference may be had at any time. When the President leaves the chair, whether the Order of the day has been gone through with or not, he calls the Treasurer or Senior Student present to the chair, and the Order of the day is proceeded with until the Class on motion thinks fit to adjourn.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

1. LAW ARGUMENTS.
2. DISCUSSION OF GENERAL QUESTIONS.
3. PRESENTATION OF ESSAYS.
4. ORR TENUS EXPOSITIONS.
5. INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL QUESTIONS.
6. DISTRIBUTION OF SUBJECTS FOR ORR TENUS EXPOSITIONS.
7. READING.
8. EXAMINATION.

EXERCISES.

Upon the President reading the first item of the order of the Day he calls upon the Treasurer of the Class, then upon the Secretary, who take precedence of all others, and then upon the rest of the Class in their order who proceed with their Law Cases, each case being of course argued by those on both sides before the President proceeds to call upon any other member. These cases must however be entered in the Docket of the Class, which always lies on the President's table for that purpose, before they are brought on for argument. The arguments are conducted exactly in the same way as cases are argued in Bank. After the reading of the second item any member may bring forward any question which he has previously obtained leave to move. Each member has a right to speak once to it, and the mover has a general reply, after which the question is put from the Chair and the majority decide. After the third, any member may present an original Essay which is immediately read either by the Secretary or by the member presenting it.

After the Fourth, the President calls upon the members of the Class, in their order, for the ore tenus exposition appointed for each for the day. After the Fifth, members apply for leave to introduce general questions. Whether leave be granted or not is decided by the majority of the Class upon the question being put from the Chair. The President however may at any time prohibit the discussion of any question.

After the Sixth, the President gives out subjects to the different members of the Class in order that they may prepare themselves to give extempore accounts of them, on some subsequent day named from the Chair.

After the Seventh, some member of the Class named from the Chair reads a portion of Blackstone's Commentaries, or some other Law author appointed by the chair.

And after the Eighth, the members of the Class are examined from the chair on the subject matter previously read.

The President then pronounces which of the members are to be recorded as having performed Exercises of which the Secretary takes a minute, he then calls the Treasurer or Senior Student to the chair and the class on motion adjourns.

LAW SOCIETY.

RULE.

PASSED HILARY TERM, 18 VIC.

Whereas there is reason to hope that this society may soon be able to procure Law Lectures to be delivered to their members upon a scale more or less extended, and it is desirable to render attendance upon such lectures necessary to the keeping of terms under the rule of the society of 8 Geo. IV. chapter 1. By the Benchers, &c., it is ordained, &c.,—

That so soon as arrangements shall be made by Convocation for the delivery of Law Lectures to the members of this society in term time at Osgoode Hall, notice shall be given of the same in the official Gazette of the province, in like manner as notice of admission and call is now given in the same; and from thenceforth no student of the society shall be allowed any term as kept under the same rule unless in addition to the requirements of that rule and those of the rule of Trinity Term 1 & 2 Wm. IV. chap. 1, he shall, if not excused by Convocation during the same term upon the ground of sickness or some unavoidable cause, attend all such lectures as may be delivered during such term, and shall exhibit to the Secretary on the last day of such term a certificate or certificates from the lecturer or lecturers of such term of his having so attended the said lectures.

That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of this society to keep a record of the terms in which such lectures shall have been delivered, the days on which each of such lectures was delivered, and the names of the students, who, having duly attended such lectures, shall have duly exhibited to him the lecturer’s certificate thereof.
LAW SOCIETY.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. Ordered, That the examinations for call to the bar, had under the rule of Trinity Term 1 & 2 Wm. IV. chap. 12, and passed by the Convocation as sufficient to entitle the candidates to their degree of Barrister at Law respectively, be divided into two classes or orders, viz., those for "call" simply, and those for "call with honours."

2. Ordered, That in future such examinations be partly oral, as heretofore, and partly by printed or written questions, to be delivered to the candidates assembled for that purpose previous to the examination day; such questions to be answered in writing under the supervision of the Examiner of the society.

3. Ordered, That a committee of three Benchers, to be called the Committee of Questions, be appointed every term by Convocation, to frame and settle the questions to be printed or written for the examinations of the following term, which committee shall meet on the last Wednesday of the following vacation, when they shall be attended by the Examiner of the society, and shall then frame and settle such questions for the examinations of the following term, and shall provide for the printing or copying of the same.

4. Ordered, That the candidates for call shall in future attend at Osgoode Hall on the Saturday next preceding the term, and shall receive from the Examiner a copy of the questions to be answered by them in writing, and shall then and there, under the supervision of such Examiner, frame the answers to such questions, and deliver such answers in writing to him for the Benchers in Convocation.
5. Ordered, That the attendance of such candidate for the purposes mentioned in the foregoing order be at 10 o'clock A.M., and that the answers be delivered to the Examiner by 3 o'clock P.M. of the same day.

6. Ordered, That all examinations for call do take place on the first examination day of the term, being the first Monday therein, and all examinations for admission on the second examination day of the term, being the first Saturday therein.

7. Ordered, That in the publication of calls to the Bar under the 3rd Particular Order of Convocation of Michaelmas term 3rd William IV., such call as shall have been “with honours” be stated to have been so.

8. Ordered, That the form of the diploma of Barrister at Law of this society be altered by the inserting therein between the name and addition of the candidate and the statement of his call to the Bar, the words “having performed his exercises and passed his examination” or the words “having performed his exercises and passed his examination with honours,” as the case may be.

9. Ordered, That in addition to the questions directed to be put to Convocation upon every application for call by the 14th Standing Order of Michaelmas Term 3 Wm. IV., there be put in cases of applications for call “with honours” the additional question whether such examination as had received and passed, be “with honours,” which question shall be put between the third and fourth questions, as stated in that order.

10. Ordered, That all candidates for a call to the degree of Barrister at Law may, if they desire it, be examined “for honours,” in which case they shall give notice thereof in writing to the Secretary at least one week previous to the term, and shall endorse their petitions for call with the words “for honours.”

11. Ordered, That after the examination of any candidate for call shall have been received, passed, and classed, and before the question for the call of such candidate is taken, such candidate may have leave to withdraw his petition for call in like manner and subject to the like conditions as prescribed by the 17th Standing Order of Convocation of Michaelmas Term 3 Wm. IV. for the withdrawal of a petition for admission under similar circumstances.
